

BODY, BEAUTY, STYLE, SPIRIT, WELLNESS

We are excited to announce...

Nadine Thompson the founder and CEO of Soul Purpose has returned and ignited the direct-sales and home party industry by formulating an entirely new and exciting line of CBD wellness-products. Her latest line of essential oil, hemp infused products will bring the next level of wellness and pampering into the privacy of homes around the country.

Customers will be able to learn about the benefits from informed Soul Purpose consultants without the stigma of walking into smoke shops to obtain the product. They can experience the benefits from the comfort and safety of their own homes.

Our partners at Youngevity have been leading the wellness industry with a comprehensive line of nutritional products and recently launched a superior line of products -HEMP FX. We are excited and honored to be a part of this innovative global community.

Soul Purpose Lifestyle Inc is about to disrupt the direct sales and home party industry by creating the next level of wellness and pampering products.
